Congratulations Evans School Community!

- To the graduating class of 2016: You did it and you made yourselves, your loved ones, and your Evans School family very proud!

- To the Evans School faculty: You've sent another well-prepared community of public service leaders into the world!

- To the Evans School staff: You made possible another remarkable year culminating in an exhilarating convocation ceremony.

Thank you all for making the Evans School so exceptional.

Sandra O. Archibald
Dean and Professor

Return to top
Association (PMRA) Conference at Aarhus University in Denmark next week. Additionally, the Evans School will be hosting a BBQ during the University's annual Solstice celebration. Associate Dean for Academic Programs Joaquín Herranz Jr. and Assistant Dean for Advancement Rebecca Ehrlichman Blume will be attending the conference to represent the Evans School and network with attendees. Also, Ph.D. student Kelly Husted will be attending to participate in the doctoral student workshop.

THOMAS TO BE THE NEXT ASSOCIATE DEAN FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS: Craig Thomas will succeed Bob Plotnick as the Evans School’s Associate Dean for Academic Affairs effective academic year 2016/2017. Thanks to Bob for his leadership and service in this role, and congratulations to Craig on this administrative appointment!

ZERBE PLACES IN RACES: Congratulations to Dick Zerbe on placing second overall in his age group in the 1500 meter race/walk held earlier this month at West Seattle Stadium!

UW INTRODUCES NEW E-IRB SYSTEM: Zipline, the new electronic Institutional Review Board (e-IRB) application system, launches today, June 15. If you have an existing study, it must be be converted to the new system. Visit the Zipline website for information. If you have questions, contact Deborah Fishler -- our Evans School Zipline point person -- at 206-543-3885 or fdeborah@uw.edu.
EPAR HIRING RA POSITIONS: EPAR is currently hiring research assistants for the Summer and Autumn Quarters. (See the posting in EvansJobs.) If you know someone who would be a good fit, encourage that person to apply by Sunday, June 20. Inquiries about the opportunity and job duties can be directed to Pierre Biscaye at eparapplications@gmail.com.

NEW DOCUMENT CONVERSION SERVICE: UW-IT Accessibility Technology Services recently launched a new tool that allows users to convert documents, such as PDFs, into a format which can be read by screen readers and other services which assist people with disabilities. Learn more (UW NetID Required).

EVANS SCHOOL POLICY PEDDLERS FINISH STRONG IN BIKE EVERYWHERE CHALLENGE: Congratulations to Anne Althauser, Pierre Biscaye, Emma van Inwegen, Kole Kantner, Marieka Klawitter, and Adam Sherman!! The team logged 295 bike trips totaling 1,257.5 miles and avoiding 1,107 pounds of CO2 emissions last month. The Peddlers placed in the top 5 percent among more than 1,700 teams from 732 organizations. A special shout-out to Pierre, who led the team with 82 recorded bike trips!

Return to top

PUBLICATIONS, APPOINTMENTS, & PRESENTATIONS

Rachel Fyall’s article "Nonprofits as Advocates and Providers: A Conceptual Framework" was published in Policy Studies Journal. The piece explores how nonprofit organizations have significant discretion over the publicly funded services they provide, and public policy is continuously shaped through nonprofit service delivery.

Following up on the success of his first two volumes, Justin Marlowe published the latest Guide to Financial Literacy, which discusses the role that Public-Private Partnerships (P3s) should and should not play in financing public projects. Read our news story; Download the Guide.

Stephen Page published "A Strategic Framework for Building Civic Capacity" in Urban Affairs Review. The article reviews the challenges of developing civic capacity to address tractable (or "wicked") policy problems, and the role that civic leaders play in creating effective networks and institutions for addressing these challenges.

EPAR Principal Investigators Leigh Anderson and Travis Reynolds (Ph.D. '11) were joined by EPAR Research Coordinator Pierre Biscaye to present four papers at this week's APPAM international conference in London. Apologies to the team for leaving this out of the June 1 eNews story about Evans School faculty and staff who were presenting at the Conference.

Leigh and Travis will be presenting versions of two of the papers -- "Relating Seasonal Hunger, Coping and Prevention Strategies, and Household Nutrition: A Panel Analysis of Malawian Farm Households" and "Policy and Economic Considerations for Global Public Goods Provision in Agriculture and Health in Developing Countries" at the ICABR conference on June 26-29 in Ravello, Italy. Thanks to the nine EPAR research assistants who contributed to preparing these papers and will be listed among the authors.

The 2016 Evans School Review is available online here. The Review is a student-run publication produced annually. Thanks to Heather Hill for serving as this year's faculty adviser.

Various Days & Times
The Dean encourages Evans School faculty and staff to take part in anti-bias workshops hosted by the UW Race & Equity Initiative. Learn more.

July 20, 2016 11 AM-3 PM
Meet with the area's top employers at the 16th Annual Diversity Employment Day Career Fair.
The MacArthur Foundation will award $100 million to a proposal designed to help solve a critical problem affecting people, places, or the planet. This "100&Change" competition is open to organizations working in any field, anywhere. To participate, register on the competition website by September 2. Proposals will be accepted through October 3.

Ashoka Changemakers and RWJF have launched the Children’s Wellbeing Initiative to promote well-being for every child in the United States. They seek social entrepreneurs who have launched original initiatives focusing on children’s issues in education, government, health, family services, and community development to join a cohort of innovative people working to advance a new vision for children. Ten individuals will be recognized as Champions for Children’s Wellbeing. Applications are due June 22. Learn More