

MPA EMPLOYMENT ANNUAL REPORT

CLASS OF 2018 HIGHLIGHTS

Employment data for the Class of 2018 demonstrates continued market demand for the MPA skillset and our graduates' strong commitment to public service.

90% of graduates found employment or were continuing education within six months after graduation.

Note: Excludes alumni who attended on international student visas, engaged in volunteer service, or did not provide employment information.

The Evans School surveys all MPA students at the time of graduation and six months post-graduation. For the Class of 2018, we collected employment data from 115 of 147 graduates (78% of the class).

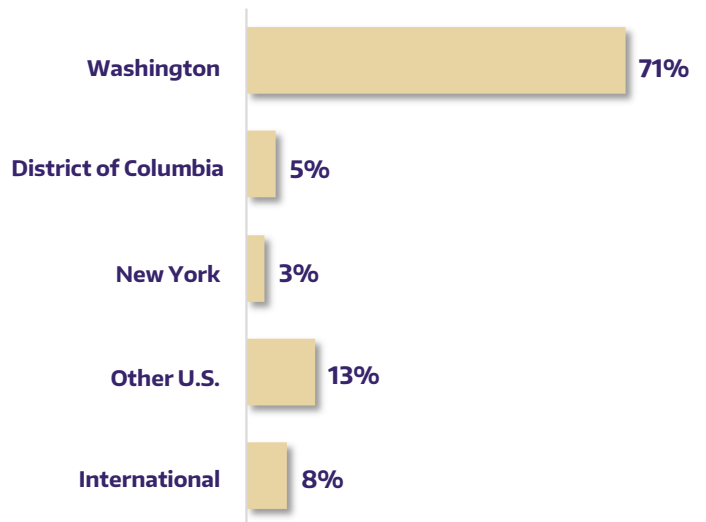

EMPLOYMENT BY LOCATION

Evans School graduates from the Class of 2018 continue to expand the global network of alumni around the world.

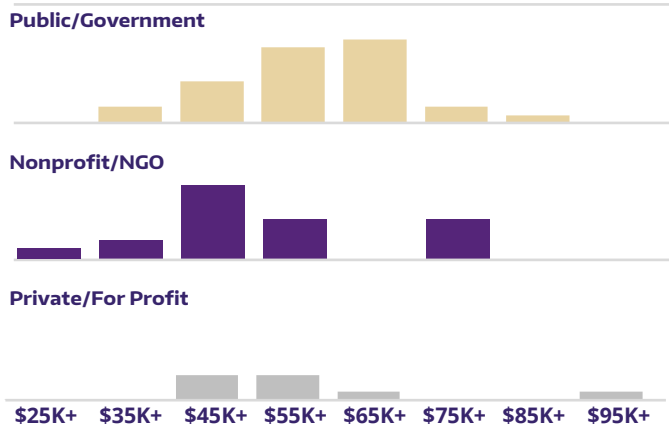

TOP LOCATIONS

While students come to the Evans School from across the US and around the world, most of the Class of 2018 chose to stay in Washington State immediately after graduating.

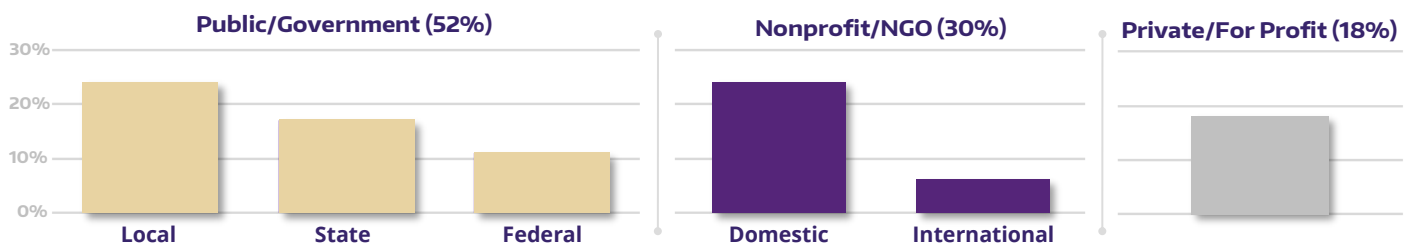

SALARY BY SECTOR

Our graduates negotiate competitive salaries. Nearly 65% of all graduates who accepted full-time positions earn over $55k, including in the public sector.
