

Allan W. Calarco

Global Solutions Faculty – Health Sector – Societal Advancement

Experience

Allan has been associated with the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL®) for over 20 years. He currently serves as a Global Solutions Faculty Member and Executive Coach. Living and working in North Carolina. He is one of a small group of Faculty who has also worked at both our EMEA and APAC campuses. While at the EMEA Campus, he was the Manager of all open enrollment programs and Director of Faculty Development. While in APAC he worked in a Program Design and Delivery role. Allan serves as a faculty member training the Center's flagship open enrollment program, The Leadership Development Program (LDP)® as well as Leadership at the Peak, The Assessment Certification Workshop, Leading for Organization Impact, Coaching for Greater Effectiveness, Managing Leadership Potential, and the Innovation Leadership Workshop. He is an Associate Certified Coach with the International coaching Federation.

Before joining the Center on a full-time basis, Allan was Associate Director of Housing and Residential Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He provided training, as well as personal and professional development opportunities, for a staff of over 400 employees.

Current Role

As a Global Solutions Faculty member, Allan Provides program design, team and group facilitation, and Executive Coaching. He regularly works with individual and teams working at the highest organizational levels. He has worked with numerous and diverse CCL clients throughout the world, including The World Bank, The Irish Public Health Institute, Deloitte, The World Food Program, Cone Health, The University of Stellenbosch, The North Carolina Nurses Association, The Scandinavian Management Institute, The United States Postal Service, and SC Johnson. As a certified CCL Executive Coach, Allan brings a practical approach to work, helping individual translate theories into application. He has represented CCL at a variety of keynote addresses, one-day workshops, and institutes.

Educational Background

Allan has a master's degree in counseling from Shippensburg University, and worked in the field of higher education for 25 years. He has sailed around the world (twice) with the Semester at Sea program, and currently serves on the Faculty Advisory Council. This educational program, coordinated through The Institute for Shipboard Education, and hosted through Colorado State University, promotes cultural hands-on service learning with an academic environment.

Professional Affiliations

Allan has designed and delivered programs and workshop in over 25 countries. He is regularly engaged in large scale customized interventions with Global Clients. He has worked with diverse clients in the public sector, government agencies, and profit and not-for-profit organizations, throughout North America, Europe, Africa, Australia, and Asia.