Terms of Use for Students & Alumni

The following terms of use apply to your search for employment as conducted through Evans School Career Development. By adhering to these terms, you will project a positive image of yourself, your classmates, and the school. Evans School Career Development has a positive reputation with employers, and we do not want it tarnished. By using the EvansJobs website and/or any other services or resources offered by Career Development, you agree to adhere to the terms detailed below.

EvansJobs: EvansJobs is ONLY for Evans School students and alumni. Because we limit access to only current students and graduates of the Evans School, we are able to maintain a high level of excellence and integrity within the system, ensuring robust and relevant opportunities for years to come. Students and alumni are expressly prohibited from sharing their accounts or log-in information with anyone. It is the responsibility of a student/alum to ensure that all profile information is accurate and up to date. Students and alumni are also responsible for honoring the interview appointments they schedule with employers and following through on commitments. Students and alumni who violate these terms of use or otherwise behave, in writing or in person, in a manner that jeopardizes the Evans School's reputation with employers, may lose EvansJobs privileges. The Evans School does not endorse or guarantee any job or internship posted in EvansJobs and we encourage all students and alumni to thoroughly vet each opportunity. Any suspected fraudulent job postings should be reported immediately to Career Development staff at evansjob@uw.edu or 206-616-1609.

By using any career services or the EvansJobs website, you agree to have read and understand these Terms of Use for Students & Alumni and agree to abide by these terms for the duration of your time at the Evans School and for as long as you utilize the EvansJobs system. Due to the potential harm that the violation of these terms of use could cause to other students and/or to important employer relationships, you understand that violations can result in severe sanctions (e.g., termination of some or all career services or disciplinary referral to the Director of Career Development or the Assistant Dean).
