

2013-14 facts

The Evans School of Public Affairs is one of the nation's preeminent schools of public policy and management, defined by a tradition of rigorous study, innovative research, and a commitment to public service. Faculty, students, and alumni provide the ideas, expertise, and leadership that guide government agencies and nonprofit organizations around the country and throughout the world.

School Leadership

Sandra O. Archibald, Dean
Robert Plotnick, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs
Linda Lake, Assistant Dean of Finance and Administration
Carrie Evans, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs and Executive Education

Research and Outreach Centers

- Benefit-Cost Analysis Center
- Marc Lindenberg Center for International Development
- Nancy Bell Evans Center on Nonprofits and Philanthropy
- West Coast Poverty Center

Certificate Programs

- International Development Policy and Management
- Nonprofit Management
- Environmental and Natural Resources Management

Global Outreach

- 34 International Development Certificate Program Students
- 28 Peace Corps Master's International Students
- 10 Hubert Humphrey International Fellows
- 4 Global MPA Track Students

STUDENTS
483

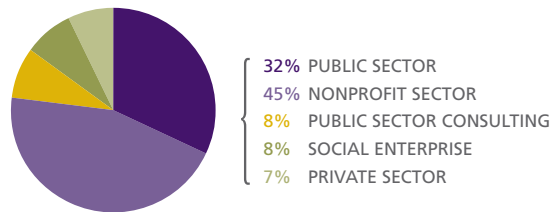

391 MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (MPA) PROGRAM
72 EXECUTIVE MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM
20 PH.D. IN PUBLIC POLICY AND MANAGEMENT

FACULTY
42

27 NUCLEUS FACULTY
15 PART-TIME LECTURERS, AND AFFILIATE AND ADJUNCT PROFESSORS

The Evans School ranks 9th out of 266 schools of public administration nationally according to the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings.

EMPLOYMENT OF 2012 MPA GRADUATES

EMPLOYED OR CONTINUING EDUCATION WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF GRADUATING: 88%
AVERAGE ANNUAL INCREASE IN SALARY AFTER GRADUATION: $18,464

Annual Tuition

MPA Program	$18,327 (in-state)	$32,889 (out-of-state)
Executive MPA Program	$43,000 (total program cost, including tuition & fees for 18 months)
Ph.D. Program	$14,211 (in-state)	$26,463 (out-of-state)
Global MPA Track	$36,464

Over 50 years at the forefront of professional public administration education

The Evans School is grounded in a proud history and leads the way in public administration teaching and research. Parrington Hall, the center of school activity, is the second oldest building on the University of Washington campus.

Distinguished Evans School Graduates

Virginia Anderson, Former President, Safeco Foundation

William D. Center, Rear Admiral, U.S. Navy (Retired)

Peter Chiarelli, Chief Executive Officer, One Mind for Research; General, Vice Chief of Staff, U.S. Army (Retired)

Sally Clark, President, Seattle City Council

Sheila Edwards Lange, Vice President for Minority Affairs and Vice Provost for Diversity, UW

Karen Fraser, Washington State Senator

Lloyd Hara, King County Assessor

Bob Hasegawa, Washington State Senator

Steven Hobbs, Washington State Senator

Joe McDermott, King County Councilmember

Mark Mullet, Washington State Senator

Marcus Riccelli, Washington State Representative

Norman B. Rice, CEO, The Seattle Foundation; Former City of Seattle Mayor (1990-1997)

Christine Rolfes, Washington State Senator

Paul Rucker, Associate Vice President for Alumni and Constituent Relations, UW

Sue Sherbrooke, CEO, YWCA Seattle | King | Snohomish

Jill Wakefield, Chancellor, Seattle Community Colleges

Management & Policy Specializations

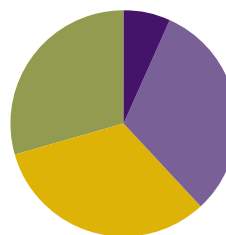

- Nonprofit Management & Philanthropy (ranked 3rd*)
- Environmental Policy & Management (ranked 6th*)
- Public Management Administration (ranked 11th*)
- Public Policy Analysis & Evaluation (ranked 13th*)
- Public Finance & Budgeting (ranked 29th*)
- International Development
- Leadership, Management, & Decision-Making
- Science & Technology Policy
- Social Policy: Poverty, Education, & Social Welfare
- Urban & Metropolitan Policy

*U.S. News and World Report 2012 rankings

Executive Education

- DEGREE: Our Executive Master of Public Administration degree program trains more than 75 public, nonprofit, and private sector executives each year.
- TRAINING: Cascade Executive Programs provides leadership and management training each year to approximately 600 midcareer and executive professionals from public and nonprofit agencies across the region.

FINANCES FY2013

$17,824,386 ENDOWMENT MARKET VALUE AS OF JULY 1, 2013

